From hypnotic minimalism, via groove-driven chants to completely improvised supernovas, this high-octane quartet mixes European traditional, American jazz, and Eastern influences to deliver an excitingly modern sound. The band is composed of leading figures in the Luxembourg jazz scene: Pol Belardi (bass), Jérôme Klein (keys), and Jeff Herr (drums) joining forces with Zhenya Strigalev, a fearless London-based saxophonist. Please Disperse has been created during an artistic residency at the cultural center Opderschmelz, Dudelange (Luxembourg) in September 2022.
