

LUKE UNA PRESENTS: É SOUL CULTURA VOL. 3

MRB328
Out 20th March 2026

The third volume in Luke Una's cherished É Soul Cultura compilation series on Mr Bongo. A tribute to the dancefloor and its ability to spread love.

With two deeply cherished compilations already in the bag, Luke Una steps up for the third volume in his É Soul Cultura series on Mr Bongo. A love letter to the dancefloor and its power to unite people from all corners of society amid growing division and extremist politics. Genre-spanning in nature, the 15 tracks travel between cosmic soul, boogie, proto-house, slo-mo technoid grooves, drum machine afro, astral bass-bugging futurism, jazz funk, dance, and disco. Each having the ability to move the body as much as the heart.

From his formative years in Sheffield to co-founding Manchester's much-fabled Electric Chair with Justin Crawford, through to helping the iconic LGBTQ institutions of Homoelectric / Homobloc, Luke has spent 40 years immersed in dance music. His latest outlet, É Soul Cultura, has grown from a label to a globe-spanning events series with Luke holding residencies and embarking on tours across the world from Japan and Australia to America and Europe.

"For me, the dancefloor was never about a one-dimensional, thudding, 130 BPM beat only. It's a much more dynamic, broader vision than that. I cut my teeth in an era where a 100 BPM record had as much impact, excitement, and energy as a 134 BPM dancefloor jazz funk or techno record", Luke mentions. É Soul Cultura Volume 3 is the perfect embodiment of that notion: "It's about four decades in the trenches playing dance music, the late-night afters, the shebeens, the basements, warehouse parties, the eight-hour journeys in East London, through to festival sets at Houghton and We Out Here. It's music unconstrained by genre or tempo and more about making your body move".

But this isn't simply a collection of disparate dance tracks; they carry meaning and soul. "It's less about escapism, more about reconnection. My experience of post-covid has been the coming together of all the clans in various clubs and gatherings. A reaction to a very toxic world out there, where the aggro rhythms of division have sought to divide us, and people don't meet as often. The coming back together face-to-face in clubs has encouraged a real love in the air, there's a real togetherness and collective spirit".

Opening up the compilation is a track that channels that very message, the transcendental, soul-rousing Harris & Orr 'Spread Love'. Joining the dots from there, to the low-slung deep house closer of Fatdog 'Remember', you'll find electronic drum machine Nigerian funk, sitting side by side with dancefloor Cape Verdean brilliance, a post-punk cover of Fela Kuti, rubbing shoulders with cosmic electro, and an Una-championed, 8-minute, kickless DJ Harvey remix. There's jazz funk in various guises moving from boogie synth to astral travelling, slo-mo acidic raw techno, and a '79 soul stepper, alongside swirling percussive Italo disco and tribal-charged house. All infused with an innate ability to bring people together.

As society becomes increasingly fractured, É Soul Cultura Volume 3's message is more than movement. It's about dance music's power to unify people from all walks of life and break down the barriers that divide us.

Artist: Various Artists
Title: Luke Una Presents É Soul Cultura Vol.3
Label: Mr Bongo
Release Date: 20th March 2026
Cat Number: MRB328
Format: Vinyl/CD/Digital

Tracklist:

1. Harris & Orr - Spread Love
2. Terry And Deep South - Trying To Get By *PHYSICAL ONLY
3. Toshiyuki Honda - Burnin' Waves
4. Igna Igwebuike - Disco Bomp
5. Janette Renee - What's On Your Mind (Super Club Remix) *PHYSICAL ONLY
6. Admin - Step Into Light *DIGITAL ONLY
7. Grupo Serenata - Sodade, Tem Pena D'Mim
8. Vital Disorders - Zombie
9. Alphonsus Idigo - Flight 505
10. DJ Food - Peace (Harvey's 30 Something Mix)
11. Man Jumping - In The Jungle
12. Stars - Dancin' People *PHYSICAL ONLY
13. Gaucho - Dance forever (Club Version)
14. Naveed - Day Come Through *DIGITAL ONLY
15. 49th Floor - Night Passage (Bongo Mix)
16. Orion Agassi - Desacato
17. Fatdog - Remember (Ft. CJ Raine)

Download high-res press shots

